JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

I, Marc L. Godino, declare as follows:

1. I am a partner at the firm of Glancy Prongay & Murray LLP (the "Firm"). I am an attorney duly licensed to practice before all courts of the State of California and am admitted pro hac vice to practice before this Court. I am one of Co-Lead Class Counsel, and counsel of record in Cabebe v. Nissan North America, Inc., No. 3:18-cv-00144 (N.D. Cal., January 8, 2018), brought on behalf of twelve of the nineteen representative plaintiffs in this Lawsuit.¹

¹ Capitalized terms herein have the same meaning as set forth in the Settlement Agreement ("SA"), Docket No. 66-1.

2. I have been practicing law for over 25 years. My firm has successfully prosecuted some of the nation's largest class action lawsuits. Attached as Exhibit 3 is a copy of my firm's resume, which includes my curriculum vitae and the qualifications of each attorney from the Firm who worked on the litigation.

3. I submit this declaration in support of Plaintiffs' Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement Agreement and Award of Attorneys' Fees, Costs, Expenses, and Representative Plaintiff Service Awards. I make this declaration based on personal knowledge. If called as a witness, I could and would testify competently as to the matters stated herein.

4. The Firm undertook this matter solely on a contingency fee basis.

5. The Firm began investigating this matter approximately three years ago in January of 2017. At that time, Co-Lead Class Counsel Mark Greenstone was a partner with the Firm and, along with me, the lead attorney on the case. In about April of 2018, Mr. Greenstone founded his own firm, Greenstone Law APC. Mr. Greenstone subsequently filed a firm name change with the Court and has remained the lead attorney on the case along with me, and has been personally involved in every aspect of the work described in this Declaration. Danielle L. Manning is an associate at the Firm who has also been personally involved in every aspect of the work described in this Declaration and devotes much of her practice to automobile defect litigation. The Firm and Mr. Greenstone and his firm are herein collectively referred to as "Cabebe Counsel."

6. On September 22, 2017, after performing an extensive investigation into the facts underlying problems with the continuously variable transmissions ("CVTs") in 2013-2016 Nissan Altima vehicles (the "Class Vehicles") manufactured by Nissan North America, Inc.'s ("Defendant" or "Nissan"), the Firm sent a pre-suit demand letter to Defendant pursuant to the California Consumers Legal Remedies Act ("CLRA") on behalf of Elisa Cabebe (the "CLRA Demand Letter").

7. Prior to sending the CLRA Demand Letter, Cabebe Counsel spent months investigating the facts and underlying problems with the CVTs including by: (1) reviewing publicly available complaints from Class Vehicle owners posted on the National Highway Safety Administration's ("NHTSA") website and other public internet forums; (2) interviewing potential putative class members and reviewing all of the documents and repair orders associated with their vehicles including CarFax vehicle history reports; (3) researching the history of Nissan's initial introduction of the CVTs into the Class Vehicles and its other models and all its subsequent modifications and redesigns of the CVTs in these vehicles; (4) investigating the mechanics of how CVTs are supposed to function through independent research and by consulting with automotive experts; and (5) searching for and learning about any previously filed or/or currently pending cases against Nissan for similar or related problems in the Class Vehicles or other models.

8. On October 26, 2017, Cabebe Counsel spoke with Paul Cauley, Jr. from Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP, counsel for Defendant, regarding the claims asserted in the CLRA demand letter.

9. On November 21, 2017, Cabebe Counsel received a letter from Paul Cauley, Jr. which formally responded to Ms. Cabebe's claims against Defendant.

10. After further communications with defense counsel, and based on the results of my firm's extensive pre-litigation investigation, on January 8, 2018, Cabebe Counsel filed the first California class action complaint on behalf of Ms. Cabebe and a nationwide class of all persons who purchased or leased 2013 through 2015 Nissan Altima vehicles against Defendant in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California alleging six causes of action relating to alleged Nissan Altima transmission manufacturing defects. Specifically, the complaint alleged: (1) Violations of the CLRA; (2) violations of California's Unfair Competition Law; (3) Breach of Implied Warranty pursuant to the California Song-Beverly Consumer Warranty Act and Cal. Comm. Code § 2314; (4) Breach of Express Warranty Cal. Com. Code § 2313; (5) Violations of the Magnuson-Moss Warranty Act and (6) Fraudulent Omission.

11. Shortly after Plaintiff filed her complaint, Defendants' counsel requested a meet and confer to discuss an extended briefing schedule for Defendant to respond to Plaintiff's complaint and to assess Plaintiff's view of the case. On January 16, 2018, the counsel for the Parties met and conferred and agreed to file a stipulation to extend Defendant's time to respond to Plaintiff's complaint and discussed their respective views of the case, including potential resolution. During this time Cabebe Counsel continued to regularly interview putative class members and potential class representatives and reviewed their documents, continued to monitor complaints posted on NHTSA and elsewhere on the internet, and continued to investigate the timeline of Nissan's actions regarding the CVTs in the Class Vehicles.

12. On March 7, 2018, Defendant filed a motion to dismiss Plaintiff's complaint and Plaintiff began preparing to file an amended complaint in lieu of an opposition to Defendant's motion.

13. In early April 2018, Cabebe Counsel was retained by Plaintiffs Hillary Dick, Israel Chia, and Alexandra McCullough, and on April 19, 2018, we filed a First Amended Class Action Complaint ("FAC") adding them as class representatives and including additional causes of action under New York and Pennsylvania state law. In total the FAC alleged fourteen (14) causes of action under three states' laws on behalf of Class Members in the states of California, New York, and Pennsylvania.

14. On May 9, 2018, Defendant filed a motion to dismiss portions of the FAC. Defendant's motion to dismiss challenged twelve (12) of Plaintiffs' claims, but did not challenge Plaintiffs Cabebe and Dick's CLRA or California fraudulent omissions claims. On May 30, 2019, Cabebe Counsel filed their Opposition to Defendant's Motion to Dismiss Portions of Plaintiffs' First Amended Complaint and on June 13, 2018, Defendant filed its Reply In Support of its Motion to Dismiss. On June 27, 2018, Danielle L. Manning of my firm our co-counsel Mark S. Greenstone traveled to San Francisco for the hearing on Defendant's motion to dismiss and a case management conference.

15. While Defendant's motion to dismiss was still pending, on August 9, 2018, Plaintiff Cabebe served Defendant with comprehensive sets of special Interrogatories and thirty-nine Requests for Production concerning, inter alia, the history of the Class Vehicles and their CVTs; complaints received by Defendant concerning the Class Vehicles' CVTs; Defendants' knowledge of CVT problems; any and all remedial efforts taken by Defendant to remedy problems experienced by Class Members with their CVTs. On August 17, 2018, Defendant served sets of special Interrogatories, and Requests for Production on Plaintiffs Cabebe, Dick, Chia, and McCullough, to which Plaintiffs' counsel prepared comprehensive responses served to Defendant on October 19, 2018. In addition, Cabebe Counsel reviewed over 20,000 pages of documents produced by Nissan in August and September of 2018 and collected through independent research, including thousands of pages of highly technical data and reports generated by Nissan. Throughout this time, Cabebe Counsel continued to interview and investigate the claims of potential class representatives.

16. On October 26, 2018, the Court issued its Order Granting in Part and Denying in Part Defendant's Motion to Dismiss. Therein, the Court largely denied Nissan's motion to dismiss, dismissing only Plaintiff Chia's New York General Business Law Section 349 claim, and fraudulent omission claim under New York Law, and Plaintiff McCullough's Pennsylvania fraudulent concealment claim.

17. Prior to and following the Court's order on Defendant's motion to dismiss, and in preparation for drafting and filing a Second Amended Class Action Complaint ("SAC"), Cabebe Counsel continued to interview and investigate the claims of potential class representatives as part of an outreach effort that ultimately resulted in approximately 854 putative class members reaching out to Cabebe Counsel, and was retained by eight new class representatives from six different states. Cabebe Counsel then thoroughly researched the new class representatives' potential causes of action and how courts in these eight states have applied them prior to filing a Second Amended Class Action Complaint. Cabebe Counsel's extensive ongoing investigation helped to contextualize and verify information provided by NNA concerning the performance of the Class Vehicles, countermeasures taken to address CVT issues, the cost of repairing their CVTs and the like.

18. On December 14, 2018, Plaintiffs filed a Second Amended Class Action Complaint adding plaintiffs Montell Jones, Kevin Burke, Arnika Ireland, Jeanine Ingrassia, Seiji Siler-Hyatte, Lashandrika Williams, Laura Windom and Michael Kanzler, and alleging twenty-eight causes of action under Alabama, Arizona, California, Florida, Illinois, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania and Texas state law.

19. On March 1, 2019, Defendant filed a Motion to Dismiss Portions of Plaintiffs' Second Amended Complaint. Defendant's motion did not challenge Plaintiff Lashandrika Williams's New Jersey Consumer Fraud Act Claim nor any of Plaintiffs' express or implied warranty claims. Shortly thereafter, Cabebe Counsel began briefing an opposition to Defendant's motion to dismiss which was completed about the time the parties began seriously discussing settlement.

20. My firm also spoke with a technical consultant who has expertise in CVT and automatic transmission design, repair, and aftermarket modification. .

21. On April 16, 2019, the parties attended an all-day mediation with mediator Hunter Hughes in Atlanta, Georgia. I and Mark S. Greenstone attended on behalf of Plaintiffs. At the end of the day, an agreement in principle was reached and over the next several weeks the parties finalized a term sheet and formal settlement agreement. On May 3, 2019, the parties executed a Memorandum of Understanding.

22. Thereafter, the parties spent weeks negotiating the language of the Settlement Agreement and related documents—a process involving the exchange of numerous drafts and dozens of conversations and emails regarding the language of the Settlement Agreement, notice documents and other related matters—prior to executing the Settlement Agreement.

23. The negotiations resulted in significant relief to Plaintiffs and the Class. Notably, three thousand and five hundred dollars ($3,500) is the average cost to repair or replace the most common CVT defects. Since the inception of the lawsuits, my firm has spoken with many individuals who simply could not afford to have their vehicle's transmission repaired.

Accordingly, we fought to ensure such persons' claims were covered under the terms of the Settlement.

24. In addition, during the course of settlement negotiations, Plaintiffs' Counsel pursued informal discovery from Defendant that was appropriately targeted as information relevant to the Settlement Agreement. Specifically, my firm assisted with providing Nissan with a list of topics, specific questions, and document requests. Nissan produced the requested data and information, including almost 1 million lines of warranty claim-related information for the Class Vehicles, which Co-Lead Class Counsel reviewed and then developed follow-up questions to be answered by Nissan. These questions and other areas of inquiry were then addressed by Co-Lead Class Counsel in a face-to-face interview with a Nissan engineer. Prior to the interview, Co-Lead Class Counsel provided written questions and topics of inquiry so the engineer could prepare and so the question and answer session would be as productive as possible.

25. The terms of the Settlement Agreement provided extensive relief to class members and Cabebe Counsel believe the settlement, which was negotiated at arm's length, is fair, reasonable and adequate. For example, the provision relating to proposed attorneys' fees, costs and expenses was not agreed upon until after the parties had agreed on all material terms of the Settlement Agreement,

26. On May 31, 2019, Plaintiffs filed a Consolidated Second Amended Class Action Complaint with the Court. The amended complaint consolidates Plaintiffs' claims in the Gann, Weinberg, Costa, and Cabebe cases and alleges a nationwide class of current and former owners of Class Vehicles who purchased or leased the vehicle in the United States or its territories, including Puerto Rico. Following entry of the Preliminary Approval Order, the plaintiffs in the Weinberg, Costa, and Cabebe cases moved to stay their cases pending resolution of the settlement approval process.

27. Following preliminary approval, the Firm participated in overseeing all aspects of the case including implementing the dissemination of the Class Notice. This included finalizing the long form, publication and post-card notices and the claim form, drafting the content for the settlement website and the questions and answers links, and reviewing and revising the IVR script.

28. In addition, after the Court granted preliminary approval of the settlement, the Firm participated in regularly scheduled phone calls with Nissan's counsel, Plaintiffs' Counsel, and the claims administrator.

29. Throughout this litigation the Firm provided updates to our class representatives to keep them informed on the status of the litigation and answer any questions they may have.

30. Shortly after preliminary approval, and even before Class Notice was mailed, the Firm began receiving telephone calls and emails from dozens of Class Members. Attorneys familiar with the terms of the Settlement and questions Class Members were likely to have, responded to every email and telephone call, often spending considerable time on the phone with the Class Member answering their questions about the Settlement, the settlement benefits and the claim process. To date, the Firm along with Greenstone Law APC has spoken with over 100 people regarding the settlement. This work will continue throughout the settlement implementation process.

31. Along with my Co-Lead Class Counsel, the Firm has worked closely with Plaintiffs' valuation expert Lee Bowron, whose declaration and report as to the value of the Warranty Extension has been submitted along with Plaintiffs' final approval briefing. The Firm participated extensively in the drafting of Plaintiffs' final approval and fee briefs and related documentation, and will remain equally involved through the conclusion of this matter.

32. The information in this declaration regarding the Firm's time and expenses is taken from time and expense printouts and supporting documentation prepared and maintained by the Firm in the ordinary course of business.

33. The Firm has engaged in this matter on a fully contingent basis. The Firm has received no compensation of any kind for my firm's work on this matter.

34. I am the person in the Firm who oversaw and conducted the day-to-day activities of the Firm in the litigation, and I reviewed printouts (and supporting documentation where necessary and appropriate) in connection with the preparation of this declaration. The purpose of this review was to confirm both the accuracy of the entries on the printouts as well as the necessity for, and reasonableness of, the time and expenses committed to the litigation. I believe that the time reflected in the Firm's lodestar calculation and the expenses for which payment is sought as set forth herein are reasonable and were necessary for the effective and efficient prosecution and resolution of the litigation. I also believe the time and expenses are of the type that would normally be charged to a fee-paying client in the private legal marketplace.

35. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 is a summary of the Firm's lodestar. The summary includes the names of attorneys and professional support staff who worked on this case and each timekeeper's respective hours and lodestar at current rates. The hourly rates shown in Exhibit 1 are the usual and customary rates set by the Firm for each individual. The Firm has expended 1,399.80 hours working on this case and the total lodestar is $729,107.50.

36. The backgrounds and qualifications of the attorneys who worked on the matter are set forth in the Firm Resume. A true and correct copy of the Firm's Resume is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.

37. Fee awards supported by my hourly rates and corresponding lodestar have been regularly approved in class action settlements that I have overseen including the following: Reniger, et al., v. Hyundai Motor America, et. al., No. 14-03612 (N.D. Cal.) Docket No. 104, using the lodestar-multiplier approach; Shin, et al., v. BMW of North America, No. 09-00398, (C.D. Cal.) Docket No. 72 (same); In re Zappos Security Breach Litigation, No. 12-00325 (D. NV) Docket No. 418 using a lodestar and benefit conferred analysis; Peterson v. CJ America, Inc., No. 14-2570 (S.D. Cal.), Docket No. 60, using a percentage of the common fund with a lodestar cross-check; Sciortino, et al., v. Pepsico, Inc., No. 14-0478 (N.D. Cal.), Docket No. 163, using a lodestar cross-check; Sateriale, et al., v. R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., No. 09-08394 (C.D. Cal.), Docket No. 233, using the lodestar-multiplier approach; Pappas v. Naked Juice Co., No. 11-cv-08276 (C.D. Cal.), Docket No. 184, awarded fees using the lodestar-multiplier approach; Lilly v. Jamba Juice Company, et al., No. 13-cv-02998 (N.D. Cal.), Docket No. 75 (same); In re

Hovnanian Enterprises, Inc. Securities Litigation, No. 08-00999, (D.N.J.) Docket No. 101 (same).

38. Further, based on my knowledge of the class action plaintiff's bar nationwide, the rates charged by the Firm are in line with the rates charged by other firms that handle class actions of similar size and complexity. Each of the Firm's attorneys that have worked on this case have practiced for the following number of years: Mr. Godino – 25 years; Mr. Greenstone – 20 years²; Ms. Wright – 7 years; and Ms. Manning – 3 years. Based on the years of experience of each of the Firm's attorneys that worked on this case, I believe the hourly rates of $400.00 to $850.00 are reasonable.

39. The hours and lodestar incurred by the Firm will increase because, the Firm, along with other Co-Lead Class Counsel, is responsible for any further briefing in this case and in particular responding to objectors, obtaining any needed discovery or deposition testimony from objectors, attending the final approval hearing, and the significant post hearing work, which includes years of claims administration and settlement implementation. If appeals are filed, Co-Lead Class Counsel will handle the appeals. On an ongoing basis, the Firm will continue to be in regular contact with Class Members who contact us regarding the Settlement and its claims process, as well as the Settlement Administrator regarding the same, and will continue to oversee the inspection and repair/replacement programs, the claim process and will continue to regularly review and act on the reports provided by the Settlement Administrator, as well as address any issues as they arise. However, no additional fees will be paid for this work.

40. The Firm's lodestar figures are based upon the Firm's billing rates, which rates do not include charges for expense items. Expense items are billed separately, and such charges are not duplicated in the Firm's billing rates.

² Mr. Greenstone was a Partner at the Firm at the commencement of the Litigation through April, 2018 at which time he formed his own law firm, Greenstone Law APC, Co-Lead Class Counsel .

41. The Firm has expended $22,935.41 in costs and expenses on this case. Those costs and expenses are summarized by category in Exhibit 3. The costs and expenses pertaining to this case are reflected in the books and records of the Firm. These books and records are prepared from receipts, expense vouchers, check records, and other documents and are an accurate record of the costs and expenses.

42. The following is additional information regarding these expenses:

(a) Court Filing Fees: $429.50. This includes the filing and attorney admission fees required by courts in the Litigation.

(b) Mediation Fees: $6,350.00. These costs relate to my Firm's contribution to the full day mediation session with Hunter Hughes. The other portion was paid by Nissan and other Plaintiffs' counsel.

(c) Expert Fees: $8,939.02. The Firm retained an expert who specialized in CVT Transmissions to assist in evaluating the documents provided by Nissan and to assist in the technical analysis related to the claims in this case. The Firm also retained an expert who specializes in pricing and valuing extended service contracts and warranty extensions.

(d) Courier & Special Postage: $1,036.68. Postage and courier fees were incurred in mailing information and correspondence to Plaintiffs and experts/consultants.

(e) Online Research: $200.00 This was paid to Westlaw for legal research and to the Administrative Office of the United States Courts for PACER research of federal court filings. Westlaw is used to obtain access to legal research, factual databases, and for cite-checking of briefs. The expense amount detailed herein represents the out-of-pocket costs incurred by the Firm in connection with use of these services in connection with this litigation. The Firm has a flat-rate contract with Westlaw for use of its services. When the Firm utilizes Westlaw services, a billing code is entered for the specific case being researched. At the end of each billing period in which a service is used, the Firm's costs for such services are allocated to specific cases based on the percentage of use in connection with that specific case in the billing period. As a result of the contract negotiated by the Firm, the Settlement Class enjoys substantial savings in comparison with the “market rate” for a la carte use of online legal research services, which some law firms pass on to their clients.

43. Travel, Hotels Parking & Meals: $5,127.13. These out-of-town travel costs are in connection with traveling from Los Angeles, California to Atlanta, Georgia to participate in a full day mediation with Nissan with the highly experienced mediator, Hunter R. Hughes. The travelling attorney was Marc Godino. It also includes travel to Nashville, Tennessee to obtain information from Nissan engineers. The traveling attorney was Ms. Manning.

44. The out-of-pocket litigation expenses incurred by the Firm in this case are reasonable in amount and were necessary for the effective and efficient prosecution of the Litigation. In addition, I believe the expenses are of a type that would normally be charged to a fee-paying client in the private legal marketplace and have been charged by the Firm to fee-paying clients. They are also the categories of expenses that have been awarded to the Firm and other plaintiff’s counsel in other class action settlements, including in the following cases: Reniger, et al., v. Hyundai Motor America, et. al., No. 14-03612 (N.D. Cal.) Docket No. 104, using the lodestar-multiplier approach; Shin, et al., v. BMW of North America, No. 09-00398, (C.D. Cal.) Docket No. 72 (same); In re Zappos Security Breach Litigation, No. 12-00325 (D. NV) Docket No. 418 using a lodestar and benefit conferred analysis; Peterson v. CJ America, Inc., No. 14-2570 (S.D. Cal.), Docket No. 60, using a percentage of the common fund with a lodestar cross-check; Sciortino, et al., v. Pepsico, Inc., No. 14-0478 (N.D. Cal.), Docket No. 163, using a lodestar cross-check; Sateriale, et al., v. R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., No. 09-08394 (C.D. Cal.), Docket No. 233, using the lodestar-multiplier approach; Pappas v. Naked Juice Co., No. 11-cv-08276 (C.D. Cal.), Docket No. 184, awarded fees using the lodestar-multiplier approach; Lilly v. Jamba Juice Company, et al., No. 13-cv-02998 (N.D. Cal.), Docket No. 75 (same); In re Hovnanian Enterprises, Inc. Securities Litigation, No. 08-00999, (D.N.J.) Docket No. 101 (same).

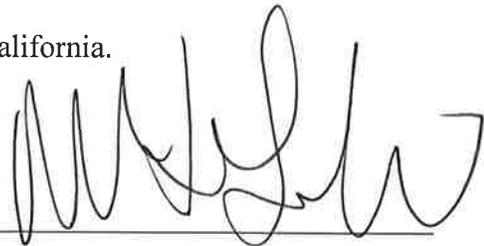

45. Nissan also agreed to pay incentive awards of $5,000 to each of the nineteen Plaintiffs named in the Lawsuits. SA, ¶ 115. These will be paid separately and will not reduce Settlement benefits to Class Members. Id. These amounts are based on time and efforts Plaintiffs expended and their commitment to the Lawsuits. Each of the Plaintiffs stepped forward to file the various lawsuits and represent other Altima purchasers knowing that they could be subject to discovery, that the litigation could take years, that they were obligated to testify at trial, and that, in the end, their efforts might not be successful. Nonetheless, Plaintiffs were willing to and did do everything required and without them these cases would not have been brought and the settlement obtained. For instance, the Cabebe Plaintiffs communicated with attorneys at the Firm regarding all aspects of the Lawsuits, including via phone and email. They provided valuable information necessary for drafting the initial complaint and amended complaints. In addition, those that still possessed their vehicles were willing to produce their vehicles for inspection and testing by Nissan. Plaintiffs in all of the Lawsuits, Leandre Bishop, Kevin Burke, Israel Chia, Krista Costa, Hillary Dick, Jura Gerald, Seiji Siler-Hyatte, Jeanine Ingrassia, Arnika Ireland, Montell Jones, Michael Kanzler, Alexandra McCullough, Terese Miranda, Autumn Pierce, Robert H. Weinberg, Lashandrika Williams, and Laura Windom, spent time reviewing court filings, and consulting for mediation and settlement as represented in the declarations of these Plaintiffs' counsel.

46. Plaintiffs' counsel and based on my knowledge of the work and contributions made by the Plaintiffs in the Lawsuits. The modest service awards are fair and reasonable.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

Executed this 24th day of January, 2020, at Los Angeles, California.

Glancy Prongay & Murray has been responsible for obtaining favorable appellate opinions which have broken new ground in the class action or securities fields, or which have promoted shareholder rights in prosecuting these actions. The Firm successfully argued the appeals in a number of cases:

In Smith v. L'Oreal, 39 Cal.4th 77 (2006), Firm partner Kevin Ruf established ground-breaking law when the California Supreme Court agreed with the Firm's position that waiting penalties under the California Labor Code are available to any employee after termination of employment, regardless of the reason for that termination.

OTHER NOTABLE ACHIEVEMENTS

Other notable Firm cases are: Silber v. Mabon I, 957 F.2d 697 (9th Cir. 1992) and Silber v. Mabon II, 18 F.3d 1449 (9th Cir. 1994), which are the leading decisions in the Ninth Circuit regarding the rights of opt-outs in class action settlements. In Rothman v. Gregor, 220 F.3d 81 (2d Cir. 2000), the Firm won a seminal victory for investors before the Second Circuit Court of Appeals, which adopted a more favorable pleading standard for investors in reversing the District Court's dismissal of the investors' complaint. After this successful appeal, the Firm then recovered millions of dollars for defrauded investors of the GT Interactive Corporation. The Firm also argued Falkowski v. Imation Corp., 309 F.3d 1123 (9th Cir. 2002), as amended, 320 F.3d 905 (9th Cir. 2003), and favorably obtained the substantial reversal of a lower court's dismissal of a cutting edge, complex class action initiated to seek redress for a group of employees whose stock options were improperly forfeited by a giant corporation in the course of its sale of the subsidiary at which they worked.

The Firm is also involved in the representation of individual investors in court proceedings throughout the United States and in arbitrations before the American Arbitration Association, National Association of Securities Dealers, New York Stock Exchange, and Pacific Stock Exchange. Mr. Glancy has successfully represented litigants in proceedings against such major securities firms and insurance companies as A.G. Edwards & Sons, Bear Stearns, Merrill Lynch & Co., Morgan Stanley, PaineWebber, Prudential, and Shearson Lehman Brothers.

One of the Firm's unique skills is the use of "group litigation" - the representation of groups of individuals who have been collectively victimized or defrauded by large institutions. This type of litigation brought on behalf of individuals who have been similarly damaged often provides an efficient and effective economic remedy that frequently has advantages over the class action or individual action devices. The Firm has successfully achieved results for groups of individuals in cases against major corporations such as Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, and Occidental Petroleum Corporation.
